

Roberto Petronio is a journalist specializing in wine and gastronomy, renowned in particular for his contributions to Revue du Vin de France (RVF), a benchmark publication for wine lovers and professionals. In addition to his articles for RVF, he also writes for other specialized media, where he shares his expertise and discoveries in the world of wine.

He has contributed to guides, reports and in-depth analyses of French vineyards, focusing on the richness and diversity of terroirs.

Roberto Petronio is also the author of “Le guide des Meilleurs Vins de France”, a landmark work in the wine world, offering recommendations and reviews of France's finest vintages.

His expertise and writing skills have made him one of the most respected journalists in the field. His work revolves around a desire to make wine accessible while highlighting French wine culture.

N°688 - MARS 2025

DOMAINE PIERRE VINCENT

Bourgogne Aligoté - 2023

“Freshness is not at the expense of maturity or depth in this high-flying wine, with its bright, luscious fruit.”

100pt score : 90

Roberto Petronio - La Revue des Vins de France

Chassagne-Montrachet Premier Cru Les Chaumées - 2023

“From an early, south-facing terroir, we feel the generosity of a spherical fruit more marked by the taste of the grape than by the imprint of the terroir at this early stage of its life.”

100pt score : 96

Roberto Petronio - La Revue des Vins de France

DOMAINE PIERRE VINCENT

Meursault Les Grands Charrons - 2023

“This is the estate's oldest vineyard, dating back to 1929, which means incredible concentration and density in this rarefied yet juicy, beautifully harmonious wine.”

100pt score : 94

Roberto Petronio - La Revue des Vins de France

Meursault Les Luchets - 2023

“Liveliness dominates this fine wine, while length but with weight or a hint of zest gives brilliance to a saline fruit.”

100pt score : 94

Roberto Petronio - La Revue des Vins de France

DOMAINE PIERRE VINCENT

Meursault Premier Cru Les Charmes - 2023

“A 1936 vine gives it its concentration, even though we're in the lower Charmes region. A wine with square shoulders, but voluminous and sapid.”

100pt score : 97-98

Roberto Petronio - La Revue des Vins de France

Puligny-Montrachet Premier Cru Les Referts - 2023

“From the very first nose, it captures all the finesse and elegance of Puligny-Montrachet.”

100pt score : 97-98

Roberto Petronio - La Revue des Vins de France

DOMAINE PIERRE VINCENT

Volnay Ez Blanches - 2023

“The 1959 vines and 50% whole bunches express the finesse of this terroir with great olfactory elegance, combined with a solid core on the palate.”

100pt score : 94

Roberto Petronio - La Revue des Vins de France

Volnay Premier Cru Le Ronceret - 2023

“Its finely powdered, very elegant fruit offers good volume with a soft, fine touch and a lovely fleshy envelope, the foundation of its finesse and silkiness.”

100pt score : 95-96

Roberto Petronio - La Revue des Vins de France