

Neal Martin is one of the most respected British wine critics of his generation. After an initial career outside the wine world, he discovered wine in the mid-1990s and trained rigorously, obtaining the WSET Diploma.

In 2003, he founded Wine-Journal.com, which quickly attracted attention for the accuracy and independence of its tastings.

In 2006, he joined The Wine Advocate at the invitation of Robert Parker, becoming a global reference for Bordeaux and Burgundy wines. Author of the reference book Pomerol (2012), he is known for his analytical and measured style.

Since 2018, he has been Senior Editor at Vinous, where he continues his work as an influential and respected critic.

Bourgogne Aligoté - 2024

“This has quite an introspective nose that demands coaxing from the glass, with hints of dried honey and lanolin. The palate is quite tangy on the entry with a keen thread of acidity, sorbet fresh with a hint of pepperiness on the finish where this Aligoté really comes to life.”

100pt score : 88-90

Bourgogne Chardonnay - 2024

“This has a lowly sunny bouquet with yellow fruit and light mirin scents, all with very fine delineation. The palate is very poised, quite intense, beautifully balanced with an effortless slightly creamy finish.”

100pt score : 90-92

Bourgogne Les Pellans - 2024

“This has fine delineation on the nose, very nuanced with a mixture of white and yellow fruit, a little more mineralité than the regular Bourgogne Chardonnay. The palate is well balanced, very smooth and creamy in texture, though the acidity maintains tension with a touch of spice on the finish. Excellent.”

100pt score : 90-92

Neal Martin - Vinous

Bourgogne Pinot Noir - 2024

“Pinot Noir is very perfumed on the nose with red berry fruit, iris flower and light incense aromas. The palate is medium-bodied with grainy tannins but it just attenuates a little towards the finish, which feels a bit skinny at the moment.”

100pt score : 85-87

Auxe-Duresses Les Closeaux - 2024

“There is quite a noticeable fish scale scent on the dark berry fruit that I quite like. Very fresh. The palate is medium-bodied with crunchy dark berry fruit, sorbet-fresh with a tang of blood orange on the short finish.”

100pt score : 88-90

Neal Martin- Vinous

Auxe-Duresses Les Hautés - 2024

“The 2024 Auxe-Duresses Les Hautés has a pithy, waxy nose that edges towards Chenin Blanc in style, good Chenin at that. The palate is well balanced with lime and orange zest, just a little brioche and almond sweeping in on delicate finish.”

100pt score : 89-91

DOMAINE PIERRE VINCENT

Chassagne-Montrachet La Platière - 2024

“The 2024 Chassagne-Montrachet La Platière has a much more austere bouquet than the Savigny-lès-Beaune, quite Puligny like at first but after three minutes there are more typical traits of yellow plum, sesame and a touch of litchi. The palate is very well balanced with a fine bead of acidity, very elegant in style, nicely poised with hint of strawberry on the finish. Simply delicious.”

100pt score : 91-93

Neal Martin- Vinous

Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru - 2024

“This has a vibrant bouquet with lime, honeysuckle, clementine and crushed stone, all beautifully defined and focused. The palate is very well balanced with a fine bead of acidity, quite tangy on the entry, very fine acidity with a precise and quite spicy finish. This will deserve three or four years bottle.”

100pt score : 94-96

DOMAINE PIERRE VINCENT

Meursault Les Luchets - 2024

“The 2024 Meursault Les Luchets is a little dense, perhaps more inward-looking than the Les Crotots at the moment, with touches of lanolin and beeswax infusing the citrus fruit. The palate is very well balanced, perhaps with a little more race than the Les Crotots, although maybe it is stricker and more aloof on the finish.”

100pt score : 91-93

Neal Martin- Vinous

Meursault Les Grands Charrons - 2024

“This has a very striking and intense nose : citrus peel, lime, crushed limestone and walnut oil, all wrapped in a subtle reduction. The palate is very poised and balanced, quite nutty, again made in a reductive style without compromising the tension and freshness on the finish.”

100pt score : 92-94

DOMAINE PIERRE VINCENT

Meursault Les Crotots - 2024

“The 2024 Meursault Les Crotots has a complex bouquet, quite mineral driven with just the faintest reduction, scents of walnut and hazelnut surface with aeration, all very well defined. The palate is fresh and vibrant, with a keen line of acidity and beautifully.”

100pt score : 92-94

Neal Martin- Vinous

Meursault Premier Cru Les Charmes - 2024

“This is very expressive on the nose with honeysuckle, brioche and white peach, hints of almond and frangipani emerging with time. Gorgeous. The palate is well balanced with wonderful praline-tinged citrus fruit, perfectly pitched acidity and a tremendously long yet tender finish. Stunning.”

Monthelie Premier Cru Les Duresses - 2024

“The 2024 Monthélie Les Duresses 1er Cru has an enticing scent of dried rose petals on the nose that combines well with the brambly red fruit. The whole bunch is neatly integrated here. The palate is medium-bodied with plant tannins. Well balanced fresh, quite floral in style, this feels very elegant with good persistence on the finish. Lovely.”

100pt score : 90-92

Neal Martin- Vinous

Monthelie Les Sous-Roches - 2024

“The 2024 Monthélie Les Sous-Roches has a complex nose with peach skin, touches of brioche and grilled walnut that open in the glass. The palate is fresh on the entry, not a powerful Monthélie, quite tensile, though perhaps just missing the complexity of Vincent’s other cuvées on the sedate finish. Fine.”

100pt score : 88-90

DOMAINE PIERRE VINCENT

Puligny-Montrachet - 2024

“It has a delineated, malic nose with scents of petrichor and schuked oyster shells that emerge with time in the glass. The palate is very harmonious on the entry, lively acidity, very cohesive, hints of grilled hazelnut and popcorn just popping up on the finish. Excellent.”

100pt score : 90-92

Neal Martin- Vinous

*Puligny-Montrachet Premier Cru Les Referts - 2024*

“The 2024 Puligny-Montrachet Les Referts 1er Cru has a potentially stunning nose with vibrant oyster shell and crushed limestone scents that soar from the glass. The palate is intense but very harmonious, a silver thread of acidity binding this together with a very persistant finish that lingers in the mouth.”

Savigny-les-Beaune Premier Cru Aux Vergelesses - 2024

“The 2024 Savigny-lès-Beaune Aux Vergelesses 1er Cru has a complex nose with citrus fruit and oyster shells coming through with time. Very fine definition. The palate is beautifully balanced with a slightly honeyed opening, slightly richer than the Auxey-Duresses, a subtle reduction with a dash of ginger on the finish. Superb.”

100pt score : 92-94

Neal Martin- Vinous

Volnay Ez Blanches - 2024

“The 2024 Volnay Les Ez Blanches has another pure bouquet, quite understand for a Volnay with discrete cranberry and wild strawberry scents, potpourri and freshly tilled loam. The palate is medium-bodied with powdery tannins. Fine depth, a keen line of acidity, quite Pommard in style towards the structured finish. Let it fill out over two or three years post-bottling.”

100pt score : 90-92

DOMAINE PIERRE VINCENT

Volnay Premier Cru Le Ronceret - 2024

“The 2024 Volnay Le Ronceret 1er Cru has a very elegant bouquet with red cherries, cranberry and rose petal scents that blossom in the glass. Very fine delineation. The palate is medium-bodied with quite strict tannins. Linear, Pommard-like, quite peppery in the finish in the sense that it shows the stems. Fine precision on the finish but it will need time.”
